

Sponsor Commitment Form

While stopped waiting for a green light, you have likely seen the homeless person holding a sign asking for help. But have you ever wondered: “What if that were me standing there?”, “Who would help me?”, “What could transpire to make that my reality?” For most in that situation, circumstances spiraled out of control and help is needed simply to get back on their feet. Your partnership with The Salvation Army is more than change in a cup. It’s an investment in the lives of others! A vote for hope! An action to show the value of every person in society.

The programs of The Salvation Army strive to restore hope and dignity. Folks come to us when they have nowhere else to go. Our programs work to rebuild the spirit and inspire individuals and families to overcome difficult circumstances. We start with providing the basic needs required to begin a new life and then expand that assistance to restore them to new hope and self-sufficiency. Many of our own staff are examples of success stories of The Salvation Army caring enough to invest in them, forever changing their lives. Will you help us help others?
